WASHINGTON, April 25.—Although the House and Senate
have passed the bill, the principle of Japanese exclusion and the abrogation of the agreement with Japan is still hopeful that some solution will be found for this harsh language
in the immigration bill. Following the Senate bill, Sen.
Colt, of the Senate Committee on Immigration, conferred today with President Coolidge. The attitude of the President was disclosed
in a statement made by Sen.
Colt.

President and the Senate have agreed that the provisions in the bill are unwise and will do infinite harm to the country. The President has said that he will not sign the bill in its present form. The Senate has agreed to reconsider the bill and to make such changes
as may be necessary to bring it into line with the President's views.

Death of Murphy
Stuns Braves

Chief of Famous Political Ring Victim of Sudden
Heart Attack

Rose from Humble Origin to Place of Great Power
in His Party

NEW YORK, April 25.—
Charles F. Murphy, grand chieftitan of Tammany Hall and for many years a powerful factor in Democratic councils of the State and nation, died today of heart disease induced by acute indigestion.

A product of the "East Side's" plutocratic "rascals" district," he had, first with fists and then with brains, fought his way from the stokehold of ward politics to the quarter-deck of party fame and financial fortune. In a span of sixty years he had been poor man's son, ward heeler, bartender, saloonkeeper, office-holder,
financier and finally director
and national adviser to his party.

He was graduated from the College of "Boss" Murphy
through that of "Harley Burly."
"Sport," "Silent Charlie," and at the last "C. F. M." the initials by which all knew him, although comparatively few of those who obeyed his commands ever had seen him. And always from more youth, his name and that of Tam-
many were linked together.

TAKEN ILL SUDDENLY
Murphy retired last night, after
a busy day and a hearty dinner,
to be awakened this morning by feverish chills and the pangs of indigestion. Characteristically he insisted upon breakfasting at the usual early hour. Immediately he became alarmingly ill and died a few minutes later in the presence of his physician, a priest, his daughter Mabel, and her husband, Surrogate James A. Foley.

The tactician genius who had ruled the destinies of Tammany Hall for twenty-two years as successor to the late Richard Croker
remained conscious to the end,
unaware that death was near.

Mrs. Murphy, who was in Atlantic City, was summoned home.
Although her husband died before
she could arrive, she was not aware of it until she was told by friends at this end of the journey.

RAIL LOWERS FLAG
Tammany Hall was the first to learn that death had invaded the home of its leader. The flag at Graceland Park, the party's big wigwag on Fourteenth street half-staffed its flag and went into mourning. Party clubs all over the city were assembled from all outlying wigwags
to pay tribute to the memory of the departed.

Belgium Accepts
Dawes Plan

Brussels Government Backs
Reparations Proposal
Unconditionally

Fails to Support Poincare's Demands With Regard to Security

BY HENRY WALKER
(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

PARIS, April 25.—Belgium broke from France today, ranging itself solidly beside the British and American unofficial attitude regarding German reparations and according the Dawes experts' plan in full.

Simultaneously Qual d'Orsay admitted what was denied last night
—that Premier Theunis and Foreign Minister Hymans are coming to Paris on Monday to confer with Premier Poincare regarding the reparation problem.

The Brussels government's reply to the Reparations Commission was received in Paris today. It contains no reservations or conditions regarding the Ruhr, sanctions or security, declaring that it accepts the Dawes report "in ensemble for a practical and suitable solution of the reparation problem."

Belgium will seek to act as mediator between France and Great Britain in an attempt to make the viewpoints of M. Poincare and Mr.
MacDonald coincide, but M. Theu-nis is in adopting the experts'
recommendations already communicated against the French if M.
Poincare continues to insist on his policy.

AWAIT ITALY'S REPLY
With the British, Belgian and French replies received by the Reparations Commission, only the Italian response is lacking and it is expected tomorrow or Sunday.
The indications are that Premier Mussolini will take a half-way position, supporting the British contention adopting the experts' report
but making certain reservations to trade on.

It is no secret, however, that
on a show-down the Italians will favor accepting the Dawes report, thus leaving France isolated. The Italians are expected to demand less M. Poincare abandons his demands.

Qual d'Orsay policy remains unchanged today to stall off its final decision until after the May 11
elections so the government's opposition cannot make any capital
of concessions or sacrifices.

LOOK FOR MANDATE
As the Premier's speech last night indicated, if his party, the national bloc, is overwhelmingly elected he will consider it a mandate from the nation to stand firm
and not abate in any way his demand for sanctions and security
as preliminary terms of acceptance.

International finance, epitomized in the world's greatest banker, J. P. Morgan, obtained a grasp on the reparations problem today when the Reparations Commission, acting on the suggestion of Col. James A. Logan, the American observer, empowered Louis Barthou and Sir John Bradbury, the French and British members respectively, unofficially to consult "such financial personalities" as they see fit
regarding the experts' conclusions
and the possibility of floating a loan of $800,000,000 gold marks ($200,000,000) for Germany.

sity said that the tremblings were
"slight but sharp." The disturbance was placed somewhere within a radius of 300 miles. It was said to have been much less marked than a minor earthquake occurring here Christmas Day of 1912. Today's shock began at 12:02:14 and ended at 12:03:15.

CORVOVA (Alaska) April 25.—Maj. Frederick I. Martin, commanding a United States Army air expedition around the world, hopped off at 10:35 a.m. today from Kamatak for Chignik, according to word received here.

Extensive preparations had to be made for Maj. Martin's start at Kamatak this morning owing to the majority of the water being blown out of Portage Bay by recent gales.

The water level in the bay was

COOLIDGE INTIMATES HE WILL VETO BONUS BILL

President Indorses Borah Speech
in Senate Opposing Bounty and
Other Large Expenditures

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Indorsement by President
Coolidge today of the views expressed in the Senate Tuesday by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, opposing large governmental expenditures and bonus legislation strengthened many in Washington in their belief that President Coolidge will veto
the soldier-bonus bill.

The President, discussing with visitors today his declaration in his Associated Press address against
"determined assaults by organized minorities on the public treasury," reiterated his frequently made plan
for economy and in that connection
called attention to Senator Borah's
address.

The Idaho Senator criticized additions to the tax-burdens of the American people and opposing the bonus bill declared it was the duty of Congress to start to curtail expenditures even if Congress had to refrain from doing certain things
which might be pleasant and politically expedient to do.

Mr. Coolidge told his callers that he regarded the views of Senator Borah as outlined in his address
as fundamentally sound and the result of logical conclusions. He made it plain that his indorsement
of Senator Borah's declarations was general and not applicable to any particular bill, but his remarks were interpreted by many of his callers
as meaning that he stood with Mr.
Borah in opposition to the bonus.

The statement of the President's views today was the nearest approach to a definition of his position on bonus legislation since his Lincoln Day address in New York,
in which he declared his opposition
to a bonus as a matter of principle, regardless of the form it might take.

Cashier Robbed of Large Sum by Bandits in Autos

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
 GRANITE CITY (ILL.) April 25.—Bandits today robbed T. D. Gradinaroff, assistant cashier of the Granite City National Bank, of $62,000 in currency which he had just received at the postoffice from the St. Louis Federal Reserve bank. Several shots were fired by Gradinaroff and the bandits but no one was wounded.

The robbery took place in front of the bank, across the street from the postoffice. The money was intended for steel company payrolls.

Gradinaroff said he did not know how many bandits were in the party. They are believed to have used two motor cars in their escape.

Death Fight Is Seen in Finding of Skeletons

 KALISPELL, (Mont.) April 25.—Discovery near one of the Glacier National Park chalets north of here of a skeleton of a giant bull moose and a man with a rifle and a broken hunting knife, are interpreted as recording a death battle of years ago between the animal and a trapper.

An unexploded shell jammed into the loading mechanism of the rifle together with the broken blade, was regarded as indicating a resort to the knife when a first shot failed to stop the charging beast and a second was unavailable.

Early settlers in this vicinity said they remembered a French-Canadian trapper who operated here twelve years ago and thought the skeleton might be his.

Nathalia's first attempt at versification was inspired by her admiration for the son of the janitor in her Brooklyn apartment-house. It was a passing fancy, she said, but she has had approximately 100 poems published in newspapers and magazines in the United States, Canada and England.

 Other items carried in the bill include: $19,500 for the Mississippi River at Nauvoo, Ill.; $41,000 for the Mississippi at Fort Madison, Iowa; $74,000 for St. Lawrence River in Oregon; $10,200 for Deep River in Washington; $50,000 for Port Orchard Bay, Washington.

The bill carries $7200 for a survey of the Cowitts River, Washington. In addition $500,000 is set aside for an investigation to determine the possibility of water-power development on certain waterways in combination with navigation improvements.

In the West local interests under the bill would have authority to extend the improvements at their own cost of Petaluma Creek, California, and to deepen the channel from twenty to twenty-five feet on the Columbia River between the mouth of Willamette and Vancouver, Wash. The work in both instances would be without cost to the Federal government which would be required, however, to make expenditures for maintenance.

CONGESTION RELIEF

In its report the committee said in arriving at its conclusions as to what projects should be authorized it had been guided by two factors:

The necessity for the development of water transportation facilities to relieve "the throttling railroad congestion of normal times," both at terminals and on tracks, to afford the public as widely as possible the benefit of the cheaper rates obtainable over water routes.

The obligation of selecting from many meritorious projects only those whose development is most necessary and beneficial and in keeping with a proper regard for economy in government expenditures.

Members of the committee said

Lemoore Man Starts to Pick Up Reptile; Almost Gets Injured

LEMOORE, April 25.—Taking a coiled rattlesnake for an oil rag came near causing a serious trouble to M. Chervanka of this city, at Lethent, on the plains west of here. The rattler gave warning and Chervanka jumped back just in time to escape the fangs. He killed the snake.

This is the third rattler, it is reported, killed near Lethent recently.

It was unlikely that they would be able to obtain House or Senate action in this session but that they would be prepared to press the measure to a vote after Congress reconvenes in December.

COLLEGE REPORT IS SUPPRESSED

Rose Accused in Water Case; Denies It

Charges Effort to Keep Back Facts

Publication of Copies of Findings Admitted

(SPECIAL DISPATCH)

PORTLAND, April 25.—Director Rose, testifying in a hearing taken here before Judge Deby today, denied charges attributed to him by C. W. Brockman, fellow-director of the board of directors of the Irrigation District. Brockman had just finished his testimony.

Both directors were called about in connection with an internal discussion early last month among four of the members of the irrigation district over the report filed by Clarence W. Barton, secretary, and his findings in irrigation matters. Barton had been charged to gather data regarding the district's operations to "test" charges of waste and extravagance made in the grand jury's final report. The charges, brought against the irrigation district, were to restrain them from doing the Barton report, which, it was asserted, had proved disingenuous because it had not mentioned a coat of whitewash for the dam.

COPIES DESTROYED

Secretary F. H. Melver, in the hearing taken today in the McCall case, testified as to the place at the irrigation district where the Barton report was kept. He said that it was a series of conclusions in place of facts desired by the public. The secretary said the instructions had been to get some one to report facts, conclusions, and then the Barton report was not made. Excerpts only of the report were permitted to see the public finally after the McCall hearing the entire report, according to district officials, was not out.

There were eight copies of the report made by a stenographer, according to Secretary Melver, who testified that he destroyed all but one when it was made. He did not supply what had been asserted by the directors. The secretary asserted that this destruction was done on his own responsibility as he had been requested to get the facts and he is getting them.

LEAVES TO LOBBY

Director Brockman testified that Rose remarked at this time "The public will not get the facts of the report. I have a right to say what I want." Just what parts of the report he referred to were not stated at the hearing today as Secretary Melver said the report had been out of his possession since completed by the stenographer. Director Rose was then called upon to have heard the testimony of Brockman, said Attorney Melver for McCall. "Did you make the remark he made?" asked if so what parts of the report he referred to? "I made such a remark," replied Melver, "regarding the Barton report, is not true," replied Melver in his replies to further questions after testifying.

LAD IS ALMOST SCALPED
Pomona High School Boy Victim as Pupil Seated in Balcony Faints and Falls on Him

POMONA, April 25.—Almost scalped in an accident in Pomona High School assembly room today, Donald Brington, 15 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brington, 1441 East Grand avenue, is in Pomona Valley Hospital in a serious condition.

Young Brington, a sophomore, was injured while seated in the high school auditorium when he was struck by the falling body of Roscoe Angell, another student who had fainted and fallen from the balcony.

Brington's head struck against the metal arm piece of the seat which he occupied. Angell was not injured, except for a severe shaking. He was taken to Pomona Valley Hospital, where Brington's injuries were treated by Drs. Smith and Fisher, who reported the boy was from loss of blood and the effects of the anaesthetic.

The lad recovered consciousness several hours later and his condition was announced as favorable. Doctors stated that a bad scar will result from the wound, from loss of blood and the effects of the anaesthetic.

Overcrowding of the high school auditorium and poor ventilation were the cause of the accident. The student body at the school numbers approximately 700, while only 500 can be seated in the auditorium.

BEACH CITY TAKEN OVER BY SAILORS
Welcome Signs Hung Out at Long Beach for Gobs to Make Merry

LONG BEACH, April 25.—More than 1000 bluejackets of the Pacific fleet cast more or less dull care to the winds this afternoon and evening in the celebration of the program arranged in honor of the return of the fleet. They started to arrive at 2 p.m. on motor taxis from the fleet and by 5 p.m. the town had capitulated to the friendly invaders.

Last night the officers of the fleet were entertained with a ball and reception at Hotel Virginia. Tonight the enlisted men from the fleet were taken to the hard-boiled G. P. O. held full away. The amusement on The Pike were open free to the sailors, all motion-picture theaters had the welcome sign out, bus companies and private automobile owners tendered free transportation to and from the free baseball game at the ball park.

BOIL YOUR WATER AND LET IT RUN
Bacterial Contamination Found in Two Samples in South Pasadena

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
SOUTH PASADENA, April 25.—South Pasadena residents, people living in Alhambra north of Wilson avenue and residents of Pasadena living between Euclid and Wilson avenues south of Colorado street were urged again today to boil all water used for drinking and other domestic purposes and to open all water faucets in their houses and yards and let the water run for at least ten minutes to flush out the lateral connections from the supply mains in the streets and the pipes in the houses.

Two water samples showing typhoid traces were taken from mains in supplying the southeastern part of the city. City Manager Orison said today. The samples were taken Wednesday. Water samples taken on Tuesday from the Ohio street well and the Marango wells of the South Pasadena Water Department and Wednesday from the South Pasadena reservoirs, show them to be free from any contamination. Whether the samples taken yesterday from all points on the distribution system show contamination will not be known until tomorrow.

The Pasadena Water Department installed a new water main to prevent further contamination came to a close. The department is making plans for the installation of steel sewer pipes to replace the old pipes that have been broken by the weight of a steam roller operated on Euclid avenue. A water now furnished South Pasadena is thoroughly chlorinated before being turned into distributing mains.

RESIGNATION NOT SHOWS BITTERNESS
Former Sierra Madre Mayor Quits Place on Board of Trustees

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
SIERRA MADRE, April 25.—Considerable consternation was aroused in this city today over the letter written by former Mayor Robert Mitchell to the City Board of Trustees. Last Monday night Mr. Mitchell, who has been Mayor of this city for six years, was not re-elected to the chairmanship of the board, and he resigned. He resigned immediately.

In his communication the former Mayor charges the Trustees with indulging in petty spite. He further accuses Trustees Sparks and Porter as being tools of Trustees Topping and McIntosh, that the entire lot are not gentlemen.

Immediately after the reading of this letter, J. D. Sparks, the new Mayor, and E. H. Porter, denied that they had been the tools of the ousted Mayor. They stated that they were the principal speakers at the meeting which was held at the Hotel Huntington tomorrow evening. Two hundred and fifty other newspaper men, many of wide prominence, will attend the affair which will be carried out similar to the annual gridiron given by the Washington correspondents. Skits and "mappars" of various kinds have been planned.

Governor Richardson will be present and Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe will be the toastmaster of the evening. Law Head, Pasadena newspaper man, is in charge of the arrangements.

McCartney Tells Glendale Club Radical Propaganda Threatens Civilization

GLENDALE, April 25.—Speaking before the Exchange Club at its weekly luncheon, H. S. G. McCartney, Assistant District Attorney of Los Angeles county, declared that civilization is threatened by the spread of radical activities, which he characterized as a menace to Christianity and government. As a means to offset this danger, he urged that every child should be taught the Constitution of the United States and the laws of his country and that parents in schools should be taught to think for themselves.

The speaker read from a collection of songs published by the I. W. W., entitled "Songs of the Flame of Discontent," urging the overthrow of the government by force.

The I. W. W., he declared, has a membership of more than 100,000 and is flooding the United States with literature, subversive of patriotism and good citizenship.

LEGAL BATTLE FOR ESTATE
Woman Files Suit Asserting She Is Wife of Rich Suspect Who Killed Self in Bakersfield

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
BAKERSFIELD, April 25.—What with all the elements of Russian tragedy, in which such writers as Dostoevsky and Gorky took sardonic delight in portraying, has come into existence through the local courts in the petition of Mrs. Hannah Raddish, who asks that half of the estate of Maurice Rudneck, who committed suicide here last year, be awarded to herself and daughter, Yetta.

Action in this asserted plot of poverty, wealth, duplicity and dead extends back into the past, when, according to the contention of Mrs. Raddish, she and her husband were married in Kiev, Russia, July 8, 1903. Raddish was the true name of her husband, she says. After separation when he came to America with the motive of thousands of other immigrants, she followed him to Los Angeles, where he changed his name to Rudneck, and later remarried.

At any rate a man in Bakersfield committed suicide last year when he was arrested by the local police on a charge of having transported liquor. He left an estate said to have been valued at $100,000. This estate was bequeathed to his wife, Sadie Rudneck, of Bakersfield, and his son, Joe, and daughter, Annie.

Now comes the petition of Mrs. Raddish, who asserts she is the true wife of Rudneck. She

WOMAN TRIED IN SLAYING OF WITCH DOCTOR
Indian Tried in Slaying of Witch Doctor

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
BAKERSFIELD, April 25.—Kneeling by the unconscious body of Manwell Brown, asserted Plute witch doctor, was Sid Walser, brother of Sheriff C. A. Walser, when Marianna Phillips, another Indian of the tribe, killed the body of Brown with revolver bullets. This was the purport of the testimony of Sid Walser on the witness stand today in Department One of the Superior Court.

Marianna Phillips is on trial charged with the slaying of Manwell Brown near Lorraine last winter. Three eyewitnesses testified today that they had seen Phillips fire into the unconscious body of Brown after he had been felled with a shovel blow delivered by Rafael Girardo. Sid Walser was one of these witnesses.

Edward West, Assistant District Attorney, called Coroner House to testify for the State as the first witness for the prosecution. The Coroner said that he had examined the body of the asserted witch doctor and gave information respecting the nature of the wounds.

Sid Walser testified to the quarrel between Girardo and Brown which ended with Girardo knocking Brown unconscious with a shovel. Walser ran to the quarrel and saw Phillips rush out and he was in this position, he swore, when Marianna Phillips rushed out to the body and, before Walser could intervene, fired rapidly a number of shots into the prostrate body.

NATURE'S DISPOSAL OF THE DEAD

Made Beautiful As Well As Economical Under the Methods
of the California Mausoleum Co.

The current Western custom of burying the bodies of our departed
dead is far from Nature's method.
That is doubtless why so many of us shrink at the idea of it. Nature's method is to take the deceased mortal garments to herself in the open air, by desiccation, evaporation and gradual attrition. The ancients knew this—hence their custom of entombing their honored dead
where the bodies would be in-vulnerable to modern conditions
of decay, and yet could fade gradually away under kind Nature's subtle chemistry.

The age-old, reverent and sanitary method of the Orient has been adapted to modern conditions in the beautiful "Temples of the Dead" erected by the California Mausoleum Company. Here the mortal remains of the deceased are gently
placed in dry, ventilated crypts
of reinforced concrete faced with marble—sealed forever against disturbance, yet graced with surroundings so beautiful and dignified that the solemnity of death is not unsettled in the minds and hearts of the most sensitive. Indeed there is the peace and atmosphere of an old-world cathedral in these Mausoleums, modified by the fresh, sweet wholesomeness of perfect ventilation and the cheer of California sunshine slanting across stained glass windows. These are places to be visited if one would realize
and understand.

Our booklet will give some idea
of buildings and methods, and show
why Mausoleum entombment is little more expensive than ordinary ground burial. Telephone for it, MA 1534, and then arrange with us for a visit to the buildings.

Men Students Reported to be Object of Drive

Letter in University Paper Starts Trouble

Girls Are Asserted to be Better Citizens than Boys

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
LINCOLN (Neb.) April 25.—Because co-eds at the University of Nebraska are unappreciative of the attention paid to them by men
students, there is threat of a male boycott. The undergraduate criticism that has been going about the campus for months broke out
when the university daily published a letter from "A Fraternity Man," in which the young women were scored.

He said the girls demand taxes
or hired flunkies to attend social functions within a few blocks of their sorority house or boarding place; that they were all the time
preparing for dances and then demanded attention that the average student cannot afford; that they were "poor dumb creatures who could talk only of baseball, football, tennis and kindred sports,"
that they did not appreciate what was done for them, but demanded
more.

TOO WEAK TO WALK
Calling on the boys to "quit
spelling them," he wound up with:
"We must have a river to keep all dates. Are the girls so weak they are unable to walk? Are they too proud to ride in a street car
to a dance? It seems so."

Groups of angry co-eds demanded that the editor disclose the name of the author, but he was steadfast in his refusal. Then they began to deluge him with letters,
until he was forced to print that
"no letters longer than 100 words
will be printed."

Several of those that already have appeared arraign the young men. They were told that the girls were favoring them by going with them; that nobody asked them to rent automobiles to carry them to parties; that all poor dumb creatures at the university are not girls. "There is a constant cry for the good old-fashioned girl, but where is the Sir Galahad of today?"

CALLS THEM CONCEITED
One girl writes that she was told before she came to the university that if she desired attention from boys she would have to attend to her needs to keep him, and she found this to be true. They are advised to quit being so conceited,
and that if they find they have picked a dumb girl to hunt up some of the many bright ones. The girl said that the trouble with the men was that they were too lazy
to hunt up new girls, and that it was so easy to call up a sorority
and make a date. Another said that she had observed that the young men liked to be clean and neat, and a date with some girl who bubbles over when she meets them
and chatters endlessly till they ask her for a date to go to get away
without being abrupt.

One girl who does not belong to a sorority bubbled over with indisposition over the proposal of one of the male correspondents that they could bring the sorority girls to time by paying attention to the men, and then drop the matter
when they had humbled the ones
who now hold them in such light esteem.

SHOES ARE BLAMED
"As for old-fashioned girls,"
writes one girl, "good heavens.
Why should we be old-fashioned?
If there are no gallants to go with us. The other day I opened the north door of Seaside Hotel
and as I held it four men walked out and two walked in. Four of them were frai men."

"And as for walking to dances,
do you realize that when a girl
goes to a dance, she has on thin
slippers, generally high-heeled?
How can you want her to walk
ten or fifteen blocks, and then when she is tired, walk home? And you would not take her again if she were walking shoeless? I call her a rotten dancer. As for riding on a street car, I never had a man suggest it to me, so it's not my fault if I do not."

Junking Sunken German Vessels Work Under Way

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
LONDON, April 25.—Three deep-sea salvage operations now
are in full blast off the northern coast of the British Isles. A firm of English scrap-iron dealers has begun operations on raising the vessels of the German fleet, sunk
when German officers opened the sea coasts of the craft simultaneously and sent them to the bottom
after the armistice.

The work has none of the certainly of reward which accompanies the quest already going on off the Irish Coast for the remainder of the Laurent's gold,
which is still there, after millions were brought up last year.
Nor has the quest the romantic interest investing Margaret Navajo's hunt for treasure in the Spolati Armada ship, buried in the mud of Tebery Bay for more than three centuries.

British naval authorities take no
technical interest in anything
raised from the German ships, it being explained last year during salvage operations at Seaside. Flowing that naval science advances so rapidly that any ideas the German craft might suggest would be hopelessly obsolete.

"This is our first effort at salvage work," said a representative of the firm which is doing the Seaside flowing, "and we hope within eight

MEXICO PLANS HEALTH SPORTS

Chamber, Legion and Clubs Indorse Scheme

Federation of Leagues is Being Organized

Well, the next couple of weeks in Drew City was about the most miserable I ever spent in my life.

BY JACK STARR-HUNT
(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
MEXICO CITY, April 25.—The American Chamber of Commerce,
Rotary Club, American Legion and Y.M.C.A. all have expressed their approval of a project for a federation of leagues in Mexico for the development of physical culture,
and the following are the bases of the proposition, as outlined by its promoter, S. W. Rider, president of the Mexico City Heights Association:

The field to be covered will include field sports, indoor athletics,
boxing, fencing, chess and playgrounds, open-air theatre, penny baths, public health and sanitation.

Manly sports, wholesome recreation and cleanliness are proved crucial for social, economic and physical health. These have political importance in teaching elements of good citizenship, fair play and respect for the empire or constituted authority.

WORK COMMENDED
Good work already has been done in Mexico through the Knights of Columbus, football, basketball, tennis and kindred sports.
This athletic movement, although without sports and recreation, is common in other countries, has grown rapidly.

Social conditions are in a state of confusion all over the world as the result of recent upheavals. It is declared, this is especially true
in Mexico, and the plan immediately advised will shape largely the country's future, politically, socially, industrially and commercially.

BRING ELEMENTS TOGETHER
In American and European countries, the result has been to bring together through promotion of healthful sports and recreation
that help to bring together elements sometimes antagonistic,
where they are to be brought together. The federation proposed would include a magazine in Spanish,
and a central school for training without sports and recreation. But traveling superintendents and organizers should be built up. An important feature would be to bring to the masses local teams
and clubs where facilities are lacking.

WOUNDED GERMAN HELPED BY YANKS
FORMER SERGEANT IS GIVEN ATTENTION THAT SAVES GANGRENE LEG

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CHICAGO, April 25.—The World
War ended yesterday for Sgt.
Herman Schmidt, late of the Thirteenth Reichwehr, Imperial German army, as he emerged from the haze of an ether barrage at the American Hospital, Dr. Max Farrell had removed from the sergeant's gangrened leg the last souvenir of his military career—a burst of three steel splinters and some shattered bone.

"Jerry" as he was known to American hospital men, was taken to the hospital from the home of his brother in a drying condition. He had undergone previous operations in German hospitals and was told that no further relief was possible unless he were taken to an American hospital and the superior skill of American surgeons saved his life and leg.

Officers and men of the A. E. F.
became interested in "Jerry's"
case and arranged for the sergeant to be taken to the hospital.
He and they had tried to kill each other a few years ago, but yesterday they devoted their efforts to saving his life.

MOTORMAN DIES AS HE HALTS HIS TRAIN

NEW YORK, April 25.—When Conductor Carr gave the signal for a north-bound Sixth-avenue elevated train to pull out of the Park
Place station and go on its way toward the city, the train started and a second time. Then he went forward to investigate, opened the door of the motorman's cab and saw the body of the man, Nathan

PEASANT QUEEN COLORUM RULER

Strange Nocturnal Rites Part of Ritual

BY WALTER ROBB
(SPECIAL FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE)
MANILA, March 25.—The adherents of the Colorum faith,
whom the constabulary have pursued and killed by the hundreds in the middle and southern islands of this territory, wish only to worship
according to their own dictates,
but evidence now appearing in the trial of leaders captured shows
these dictates of the Colorum conscience are peculiar. They go so far as to cause the fanatics to renounce the established government, establish one of their own,
under a queen peasant, and pay it tribute. Instead of carrying out a grudge against Americans, however, they carry out a grudge
against the chaotic class of Filipino, the bourgeoisie. It was the

ATTACK BLINDLY
On destruction of the tank the
fanatic attacked the constabulary,
who shot them down with rifle fire. The Colorum method of attack is to wield the bow in the right hand and cover the eyes with the left—thus going blindly and wildly into battle. They feel about this as they did about the Jordan river, that if death comes when their sight is shielded they will slough it off in three days. So strong is this belief that the constabulary were compelled to leave the fallen bodies six days before effecting burials.

Strange nocturnal rites were testified to by Colorum leaders as part of the ritual of the priests.
At 9 o'clock each evening there would be a holy dance. The virgin queen, a beautiful girl, was paired
in this season of passion and religion with the "poor" (twelve ladies-in-waiting were each paired with one of the lower order of priests. Lights were turned out and carnal festivities enjoyed. The queen and her ladies-in-waiting never lost the character of vir-gins and—like Satan eating scripture for his purpose—when the court questioned closely on this point the witness found his precedent in the immaculate conception.

HALF-CASTES
Some of the higher Colorums

one captive seems to have Caucasian blood in him. "El Verdugo,"
the killer, however, believed to be the official executioner of the sect, is of large frame and muscular and oriental features, and he must be the Malay-Chinese ancestry.
The five leaders tried in the Surigao court were all manacled, one of the faintest kind being shackled
with his hands and feet. Precautions, however, might indicate lack of a strong jail at Surigao rather than great desperation in the prisoners.

When the Colorums gave but denial of the statements and showed that it could not be reconciled with the requirements of the faith.

Judges Claim Californian
Got Away Before Gun;
Sprinter Good as Ever

BY WALTER ECKERSALL
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

DES MOINES (Iowa) April 25.—Despite a steady down-fall of rain, which started early in the afternoon, six records were smashed, one established, and Charlie Paddock of California, recognized as the world's fastest sprinter, ran 100 yards in :29 3-5, a world record time, in the opening day's events of the sixteenth annual relay games of Drake University here today, beating his nearest competitor by five yards.

At the time the athletes were coming on the field to prepare for their specialties a drizzle started. This turned into a heavy rain as the games progressed, but the 1000 spectators braved the elements and stayed through the entire afternoon's program, which was featured by sparkling competition.

Although the records went by the board, the performance of Paddock in tying the world's record for the century was about the most striking feature. There has been some doubt as to whether Charley is as fast as he was two years ago, when he engaged in his last competitive race. While he appeared a trifle fat, he has lost none of his speed and with a little more training will be down to running record time.

In his dash Paddock was caught in :29 3-5, but he will not be credited with the record.

John L. Griffith, starter, said afterward he would have recalled the flag had it been an actual race. Charley wanted to run again later in the afternoon, but the rain left the track in such poor condition he postponed his efforts until tomorrow.

Wolverine came along and established a Drake record of 45 ft. 3 in. in the running hop, stop and jump. It is the first time the latter event has been held in connection with the meet and will stand as a record until broken.

Hartman, the Nebraska weightman, tossed the shot 46 ft. 4 in. for a new Drake record. The former mark was 45 ft. 8 in. and was made by Bradley of Kansas in 1922. Other marks were credited to Colfax, which set a new record of 125 8-10 for the Class B 500-yard high school relay while Webster City hung up a new record of 4:48 5-10 for the way.

In the college division, Simpson established a new mark of 5:32 4-10 for the mile relay and Kansas, Vista hung up a new record of 1:52 6-10 for the 800-yard event.

In the only university relay held today, Nebraska won the 440-yard event from Illinois and Iowa, which ran in the first division. Notre Dame took the second division honors, but the Hoosiers' time was 3:10, slower than that of the Cornhuskers.

HE PERFORMS TODAY

It's Lee Barnes, Hollywood pole vaulter, broad jumper and discus tosser, who is expected to cut quite a swath in the Southern California prep track and field meet this afternoon at the Coliseum. Barnes will attempt to establish a new world's interscholastic pole-vault record. If he does he will have to clear 13 feet, which is somewhat up in the air for a high-school lad, or anybody in fact.

PREPS IN TITLE MEET

Annual southern California High School Event at Coliseum Today; Manual Arts Favored

Manual Arts, Hollywood and Huntington Beach track athletes will battle it out for the Southern California high school championship at the Coliseum this afternoon. There'll be a lot of other schools entered but they have about as much chance of grabbing the title as King David has of trimming Jack Dempsey. The meet is scheduled to start promptly at 1:15 o'clock, with several of the Class C events being run off an hour earlier.

Coach Sid Foster's Trollers are the best bet at this writing not only by virtue of their win over Hollywood in the recent city meet, but also because Vic Klein, star mile sprinter, is not in the best of shape. In order to win the meet Klein must show well in the two dashes. Thursday in the preliminaries he was suffering from bad cramps in his right leg and Coach Bill Paige is not sure that he will be right today.

Lee Hansen, demon Manual distance ace, must win both the mile and half mile to keep his team out in front. He is up against a good man in Orrall of El Monte in the two-lap affair, while Carnahan of Riverside is sure to make things mighty speedy in the mile. Rosa Nichols and De Wolf Requa are expected to set new marks in the hurdle races. The former is a rising star in the track world and the latter 'the low'.

Gen Whittle's electrical timing device has been made the official judge of the two dashes and the hurdle races today, thus doing away with any element of error in timing.

Laswell Wears Out "Murder Ball" Rant

Garbutt Drops Two Straight
to Klavitter

BY BILL HENRY

Jack Donovan and Lane McMillan, a mighty sweet pair of players, captured the national handball championship in doubles from Ernie Clark and Nolan Allen of the L.A.A.C. yesterday, 21-20, 21-7. Thus the northern invaders feel better for their elimination from the singles. The singles title now lies between Maynard Laswell and George Klavitter of the L.A.A.C., who moved into the finals at the expense of Murder Ball Bill Rant and Frank E. Garbutt, respectively. The finals for the singles title will take place shortly before lunch today and many a meal will be missed on account of it.

The doubles match was a triumph of cohesion and practice and the Olympic team was never headed at any time. Donovan and McMillan manifestly had worked together for a long time and knew their stuff perfectly. McMillan worked the front of the court chief, and was sure to deal with his kills to the right-hand corner, while Donovan galloped all over the court and kept the local pair in trouble at the time.

HEARKEN TO PLEAS

Except for one great rally at the end of the first game the local team was never in it. The Olympic pair worked the score up to 20 to 2 in the first game when suddenly the local duo decided to listen to the plaintive wailing of the gallery and began to lope the ball into the back court, where the northerners were less deadly. Allen went out on his service after two points and Clark kept plugging away for point after point until the score was 20-all. With this sensational run of a dozen straight points the Olympians were badly disorganized, muffing shots off the back wall and showing signs of going to pieces. Clark ended but one more point to put the game on ice and while everybody held their

WELLS LARRUPS LISTON

British Welterweight Makes Monkey Out of Sailor
in Main Event at Holly Stadium

Billy Wells proved to be an Irishman's sea for Sailor Liston last night at the Holly Stadium in the main event. It was Wells all right. The Britisher was simply too elusive and clever for Liston, who had no defense to speak of. The Sailor's only hope was to land a cartwheel and Billy laughs at such piffing missiles. Wells punched the Sailor at will. The witnesses declared, however, that Liston hurt Billy more than did Bert Colima last week at Jack Doyle's pavilion.

"Mushy" Callahan won over Billy Wallace in the championship lightweight elimination tourney. The first was "Mushy's" through his aggressiveness. In the second Callahan forced his man to the ropes and punneled him with short lefts and the round was his by a large margin. In the third Callahan got busy and knocked Billy down with a right cross to the jaw for the count of nine.

Joe Medina got the decision over Sunny Green in a very fast scrap. Joe kept tearing in all through the first two rounds, landing a number of lefts to the stomach. Sammy tried hard to land a left but Joe was always inside. In the third, Joe toppled Sunny over for the count of nine and had him groggy against the ropes. Sammy then came back with a rattle and knocked Joe through the ropes with a terrific right uppercut. Joe had the fourth easily.

Jack Russo and Tommy Conkey battled to a very fast draw, slowing Jack down several times with straight lefts. Russo, however, was the stronger. In the first round, Conkey dropped Russo with a right to the chin just as the bell rang. The set-to was a great fun pleaser.

George Gilmore biffed too hard and too often for Sailor Foster and was given a well-deserved decision. Gilmore shot over a left hook a number of times that reached the mark. Foster showed poorly at close quarters and also got a good peppering at short range.

Billy Hart triumphed over Benny Palmer. Benny appeared to be the faster but Billy had the old sock that cops the persimmons. He had Palmer clinging to his

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—A rule providing an additional weight allowance for horses that have not won at a mile or better, is to be adopted by a meeting Wednesday of the stewards of the forthcoming Tanforan meet, to encourage the owners and trainers to enter their horses over the distance noted. An allowance of five pounds will be made for three-year-olds and five pounds for older horses.

A general demand for more starts in front of the grand stand is responsible for the rule.

OMAHA (Nebr.) April 25.—Dave Shade of California won a referee's decision over "Kid" Schlaifer of Omaha in a ten-round bout here tonight. Each weighed 151 1/2 pounds. Shade took every round up to the sixth, when Schlaifer rallied, took the seventh, fought the next two on even terms, and wavered in the tenth.

WALTER MILLER

Walter Miller, former world's middleweight wrestling champion and instructor of grappling at the Los Angeles Athletic club, will participate in his first match in Australia tonight, according to a wire received by Clarence Weber, a 190-pound matman, known as the Adonis of Australia, at Melbourne.

Vic Garibaldi pitched Huntington Park High to a 6-to-0 victory over San Pedro High in a crucial Bay League baseball game yesterday on the Spartans' home lot. Huntington Park's victory makes the Spartans favorites to win the Bay League title, as they have not lost a league game to date. San Pedro won the championship last year.

Garibaldi, who is only a freshman at Huntington Park, pitched a wonderful game, and had the San Pedro squad helpless at all times. He fanned ten men and allowed the last year's champs but three hits. He did not yield a hit until the seventh.

Meet in Final Round of Golf
Event at Flintridge

Wetherby Loses to Godchaux
in Semifinals, 3 and 2

Cosby Turns in Unexpected
Victory Over Shaffer

BY CHARLES WEST

Whether the Flintridge Country Club invitational golf title will remain safely tucked away in the clubhouse, or will take a long journey to New Orleans is to be decided today when the final match is played over thirty-six holes on the sporty Flintridge links. The consensus of opinion seems to be that the title and accompanying trophy are due for a trip, New Orleans being represented by no less formidable golfer than Frank Godchaux, while A. B. Cosby faces the difficult task of defeating the invader in the interests of Southern California.

Cosby advanced to the finals yesterday by an unexpected victory over A. J. Shaffer in the semifinals, 3 and 2, while Godchaux defeated Arthur Thompson on the home green by the same margin.

BIG FAVORITE

While Godchaux is an overwhelming favorite, due to his reputation and past experience in tournament play, Cosby is just the sort of player who is liable to surprise the world and win. Godchaux has been famously weak with his putter during this tournament, and unless he shows some improvement today he is apt to find Cosby a tough opponent. Cosby reached the final in spite of a well-founded belief among the members of his immediate family that he would be eliminated in the first round, and needless to say he is going to extend himself today.

Both Godchaux and Cosby had cards of 74 in their semifinal matches, the former being 4 up at the end of the first nine holes, while Cosby was trailing by two holes. The result of the Godchaux-Wetherby match was foreseen after the first few holes, the Annandale player being sadly off form, although he sank several lengthy putts. Godchaux kept step with par all the way on the first nine, sinking his only decent putt of the day on the ninth green for a birdie, and had a 35 at the turn.

Starting the second nine two down, Cosby uncorked a burst of brilliant golf and won four holes in a row, and finally tucked the match away 3 and 2. He scored a 34 on the way in—one under par, although he started badly with a 49 for the first nine, while Godchaux clicked off his shots for a par 38.

MAILS DEALS DOUBLE BLOW

Old Cocco Certainly Has Large Afternoon

Heaver Root Eases First Tilt for Krugmen

BY ED HUGHES

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The great mails won two decisions today. He led the Oaks to a 5 to 2 victory over Los Angeles and after the game he batted Pitcher Meyers in a scuffling match, in which there was no one hurt.

Mails was pitted against Charley Root, the sensational young pitcher, who has won four straight for the Oaks and who had allowed only three runs in thirty-seven innings.

Root looked good but Mails looked better. Not only did he pitch five balls, but Mails batted in a couple of runs himself with a single and a double so he had a very satisfactory day.

BARE HOMES
Twombly opened the game with a home run, the ball rolling under the gate in left field. That is the second time this week such a thing has happened. Root getting a home run the same way a few days ago. That home run gap should be stopped up.

Russ Arlett tied the score by hitting the ball over the right field fence in the second. The Oaks won the game in the fifth, a pass to La Fayette, a double by Baker and a single by Mails putting two runs over. They picked up another, the seventh on a single by Baker, a sacrifice by Madera and Mails's double.

The Oaks scored their last run in the eighth when Cooper and Cather beat out Hunter. Arlett bunted them along a notch each and after La Fayette had popped out, Root got wild and hit both Baker and Madera with pitched balls. Cooper scored when Madera was hit. The score:

SEATTLE, April 25.—Seattle made it three straight victories over Sacramento today when George Stuehland held the Solons to six hits and pitched the Suds to an easy 9-to-1 victory. The result of the game pulled the Suds out of the cellar and shoved the Sacs to the bottom. Bowman of the Indians hit a home run with one on in the fourth inning. Ray Rowher, who got four hits yesterday, walked four times today. Hughes pitched good ball for Sacramento except in the seventh when the locals touched him for four runs. Score:

ADMIRAL ROBISON PITCHES TODAY

Admiral S. S. Robison, commander-in-chief of the United States Battle Fleet, will pitch the first ball this afternoon at Trona Field, the harbor, when teams from the dreadnaughts Maryland and California and the Arizona and Mississippi clash in the season's opening.

Approximately 10,000 officers and men from the fleet are expected to witness the two games, baseball interest having been worked to high pitch during the winter cruise of the fleet in southern waters.

CONFERENCE NINES PLAY

Oxy Tackles Grizzlies, Sagehens Take on Poets and Engineers Entertain Bulldogs in Three Tilts

BY BRAVEN DYER

The league-leading local University of California nine will be host to Coach Wilkie Clark and his Occidental College toasters at the Vermont-avenue field this afternoon in the most important of the three Southern California intercollegiate conference tilts. At Pasadena the Caltech team faces Redlands, with Pomona going to Whittier to take on the playful Poets.

On paper the Grizzlies look good for a victory today. They have waited through two games without a great deal of trouble, principally the result of the lack of pitching of Al Montgomery. The local heavier is also considerable of a sticker as he is leading all of the conference pitchers who have played in at least two games.

Coach Clark has a good nine at Oxy, but it is not as well balanced as are the league leaders. Squint Fulton is capable of pitching nice ball, and if his mates back him well they may be able to spring something of a surprise.

Caltech should have no trouble trimming Redlands. The Bulldogs have no pitcher of any established worth and in addition are rather weak with the willow. If Groat is heaving for the Engineers, the Redland hitters might just as well keep their bats in their bags for all the good it will do them to go to the plate.

White Says Campers-Autoists

Tulare Baseball League Will Start Play Sunday

Orange Picking Delayed in Terra Bella District

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

VIRALIA, April 25.—Eighty per cent of the forest fire in the United States are caused by carelessness of campers and motorists, and during 1933 cost more than $1,000,000 for fighting in California alone, according to Col. John R. White, superintendent of Sequoia and General Grant National Parks, addressed a Yachin Kwanan at the Hotel Johnson.

California's fire loss last year extended that of any other State in the Union, according to Col. White, who emphasized the need of greater care on the part of campers and motorists. During 1933 California had 11,195 fires, which burned over an area of 3,841,000 acres. Of this total 635 were caused by campers, the cigarette being the greatest "forest prime evil," stated the speaker.

The area burned over last year is equivalent to twice the amount of lumber needed in one year for building operations in the city of San Francisco, there having been 30,000 fires in the United States during 1933, burning over 11,548,000 acres. And 50 per cent of this loss could have been saved if the motorists and campers had been more careful.

DELAIED BY QUARANTINE

EXETER, April 25.—The Tulare county baseball league will start again Sunday, the 27th inst., by decision of the directors at a special meeting here. The first game of the series will be counted but practice games played after postponement of the schedule on account of the hook-and-moon epidemic fight will not be counted. Exeter is scheduled to play Tulare at Exeter, but because of the epidemic fight will not be counted. Secretary Harry Hynes of Tulare stated that on account of the plague he would be unable to attend any meetings and that Tulare would not play any games in the league schedule. It is thought that if Tulare does not come some other team of the league will be substituted.

H. O. Young of Visalia was appointed secretary of the league. He stated that Tulare county will continue free of the plague, but every effort has been made to co-operate with officials in preventing its invasion. Inasmuch as none of the games would be played out of the county, the league will be substituted.

Almost every section of Porterville is doing with these lanterns and Ball is having difficulty in keeping the roads closed.

The Valencia crop is now being moved from several Tulare county districts but local growers decided that conditions warranted holding the fruit a few days longer.

FRESNO, April 25.—Accused of violating the Medical Practice Act, Manuel Camacho was arrested at 1425 Tulare street by Detective Sergeant T. R. O'Brien on the complaint of Harry G. Henderson, examiner for the State Board of Medical Examiners. Henderson's complaint, filed before Police Judge Crichton, alleges that the defendant attended to practice, practiced and advertised himself as a healer of the sick without the required certificate.

Camacho, bearing the name of Camacho and the Tulare street address, have been printed in the Spanish language. Henderson said, and distributed generally among Spanish and Mexican families.

Ball for Camacho was fixed at $500 by Police Judge Crichton and he was remanded to the County Jail pending filing of a ball bond. Camacho told police court authorities that Dr. Scolari would furnish ball for him.

Dr. Scolari said last night that he had employed Camacho some time ago as a "practical nurse" and interpreter. Recently, he added, he was questioned by the State Board of Medical Examiners and, at that time, the man made an affidavit that he was not practicing medicine. The affidavit, Dr. Scolari added, is in the hands of his attorneys.

GEORGE EDWARD LEWIS
MAKES ALASKA EPIC

By Grace Kingsley
"After twenty-five years of trying to tame Alaska, that country still remains a frontier, and it will continue to remain a frontier, in my opinion. It is a place of refuge for students and teachers and other world-weary ones, and a place for the people to go and see God creating a world."

Which shows you how George Edward Lewis, pioneer Alaskan traveler, author, picture producer, and one-time miner, who made his first trip to the north in 1888 and who has made in all forty trips to that country, feels about Alaska.

Mr. Lewis spent a year in the production of a picture showing the gold rush days, and the "Cheechako," a cheechako being in the language of the northern Indian a tenderfoot or outsider. This picture Mr. Lewis has just disposed of in New York to the Associated Exhibitors, and it will be shown here within a month or two.

Now the producer proposes to return to Alaska and make a picture of the "Eternal Frontier," and the story was written by Harry Gates. It will be a modern show of life in Alaska with some flash-backs to reveal pioneer days, but will reveal the fact that Alaska is indeed the eternal frontier. The big kick of the story will come when the villain and dog sleighs are buried in a real snowslide.

Mr. Lewis knows the habits and times of the snow-slides, and is going to be right on hand, in May, to get the picture. Just how he means to have his actor and dog sleighs buried in the snowslide without being actually killed remains his own secret.

Howard, now making independent productions, will direct, and Raymon Johnson will be chief cameraman. William Dill, who appeared in "The Cheechako," will play the picture, as will also Gladys Johnson, the beautiful young girl who made such a favorable impression in the former Lewis picture. The leading man has not been chosen, nor have other players.

Leaving for the north next week will be Lewis, Johnson, Dill and Alaska Surratt, the latter an older brother from the Alaskan goldfields. Many of the exterior work is being done in the snowslide. Following this, Lewis will return and make all his interior work in Hollywood, after which the producer will again trek northward, this time with all of his company. The first stop will be at Skagway. The picture will reveal the Yukon and Chitcot Pass, and the beauty of the Koyukuk River, and other places in summer. Lewis and his company will go down the Yukon in a boat.

EDWARD HORTON TO PLAY BOB MERCER

Ruggles of "Red Gap" fame, otherwise Edward Horton, will shortly be seen again in a Paramount picture. He has been engaged to fill the important role of Bob Mercer in "The Man Who Fights Alone," William Farrum's first starring screen play under the Paramount banner, according to an announcement just made by James L. Leaky, first vice-president of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation in charge of production.

Although well known on the screen and legitimate stage for several years, Horton achieved a

Soprano and Pianist Give Joint Recital
Mrs. Inabel Zenteno, soprano, assisted by Stanislas Michlewicz, pianist, was heard in recital last evening at Philharmonic. A diversified program was heard.

Regrettably, words of praise must be chosen with care for the concert last evening. The program contained well-selected music throughout, and both musicians were thoroughly familiar with their numbers.

Critical estimate, sadly, is not always a matter of arranging bouquets. Mrs. Zenteno has studied her numbers well, but both emotionally and interpretationally there was something decidedly lacking, and in her voice there was a quality not always placed with the color represented in a copy of the oil painting of the Lord's Supper by Murillo which Mrs. McGroarty always carried with her. This painting, according to Mrs. McGroarty, represents the most perfect harmony in color blending.

Not only has the color effect of each scene been painstakingly worked out, but also the change of ensembles during the dances—in "Glorious" and "Pierrot," the extra dances a girl in a certain shade of rose meets as partner a man wearing a harmonizing shade and so with all the other colors; whether in repose or in action there is never a jarring note of color during the entire production.

Project Plans for Hollywood Little Theater
A new theatrical project to aid in the uplift of the drama is being planned by H. Ellis Reed, who, together with P. T. Gerson, was one of the founders of the Hollywood Bowl and Philharmonic. Initial meetings have been held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ingleside, both well known in Hollywood's artist circles.

The Hollywood Art Theater as planned will be a non-profit organization, patterned after the A.T. Guild, Comedie Francaise and Moscow Art Theater. It will be strictly professional, aiming toward the highest-class drama, excellent players and finer direction.

An organization to function for three months to attend to the financing and launching of the enterprise, has been effected, with P. T. Gerson as president, W. E. Strowbridge as vice-president and Rita Kisin as secretary.

The first performance of the organization will be given at some downtown theater, to be announced later. When sufficiently financed, a site will be purchased and a building erected in Hollywood. Committees now deliberating on ways and means to raise money for the theater include Mr. Ellis Reed, E. Magnus Ingleside, Winthrop Keller, Arthur Pres. Rita Kisin, Willis Holt Wakefield and W. E. Strowbridge.

May Make Robinson Crusoe
It is just possible that Douglas Fairbanks will make a film version of the famous old tale of "Robinson Crusoe" for his next film venture. This, however, isn't settled yet.

In case he does make the picture, it is quite likely that Hampton Del Ruth, who made some of the scenes of "The Thief of Bagdad," will direct.

REVIEW OF STOCKS IN PAST WEEK

Public Reacts to News of Large Short Interest in Industrial Shares

A. A. Housman & Co.'s weekly review of the stock market says:

"Anyone who is at all familiar with the stock market knows there are times when current news developments have little or nothing to do with day-to-day price changes. This is one of those occasions. Almost everyone will also recognize that if a situation at a given time is given enough publicity and stressed almost to the point of sensationalism, the effect upon the public mind will be immediately noticeable.

"During the big advances of the stock market buying power is often inflamed by stories and reports of big earnings, increased dividends, etc. The same reaction sometimes is used at a period when the market has suffered a prolonged decline, and even over-crowded. All the comments on the market during the past week have had as their principal note the remarkable number of stocks loaning flat, the big borrowing demand and the increase in the number of outside speculators who have gone short around the low levels prevailing earlier this week. The widespread publicity given the tremendous size of the short interest has given traders, who believe that the market deserves a rally, ammunition with which to work.

"At first, the better tone was due to long buying designed to force short covering, but the strength today, we believe, is a reflection of the success of this policy and is due to actual short covering in substantial amounts. Market sentiment has been so one-sidedly bearish, so utterly pessimistic, so thoroughly convinced that nothing could save the market from a smash that some reversal was only logical, particularly as developments in the industrial world while not aggressively optimistic, were not at all alarming. Irrespective of whether the political situation has improved or not or whether business is due for immediate improvement, the technical position of the stock market is such as to justify a further improvement in prices. Everyone agrees that after the publication of the steel earnings for the first quarter on Tuesday, next, bears will make another determined effort to smash the market. When opinion is so unanimous as it seems to be in this case, the expected frequent does not occur."

And hear some foreign music.

After all, we are brothers and sisters, aren't we, folks?

Remember when you were a schoolboy and the teacher told you to turn in an essay on Oliver Twist? Well, the smartest of us, even a smart man as H. G. Wells.

Of course, not word for word from the encyclopedia, but I never got very far from the subject as laid down in the book.

Well, once in a while when I read Wells' "Outline of History" I would run across some words and I consulted my encyclopedia and what do you suppose I discovered?

That H. G. has a copy of the same one as I.

Of course, I don't say that I kept it always opened before me, but I caught him at it more than once.

A Testimonial

"I'm so glad I read Harry's book in my youth."

John Gay.

As he ate five pounds of sugar for supper.

And hit his (narrative) "Light eating's the thing for me, goot or king."

Be it Pedro or Freemantle.

A couple of miles out of town I met them.

"Can you tell me the drive to the next town?" the driver asked.

"Atolia," I replied.

"Atolia," I said louder.

"I say what is the name of the next town?"

"And I say Atolia," I said.

"Oh, come on, Harry," said the companion, "the poor suit was told you as long as you can ask him. Anyway, we found out the name of the town we got there."

Overheard at the Movies

"What are they going to do with their boy?"

"I don't know. They christened him Montmorency."

That there be germs survive.

The lye, lye, the sweetest with which the laundry trade cleanses, I wish my clothes had a vigor.

THREE FALL

politics, citizenship and such.

No; boxing is a racial thing. We cannot well lose; we have been the envy of the world, from French and Italian and American have sought to imitate us. From Paris to Buenos Aires, the essence of our character, long as we remain fundamental Anglo-Saxons, and by the way, the best boxing can be taught in the school we call by the name of sportsmanship.

FEED IS CLUBHOUSE BOOST

Council Members Favor Echo Park Project After Dinner Served by Mother's Club

Members of the City Council yesterday found themselves helpless before woman's most powerful weapon, the serving of a good meal. The women of the Echo Park Playground Mother's Club invited the Council to a luncheon in order to demonstrate their great need of a new clubhouse, a petition for which was recently laid before that body. As course after course of excellent food appeared it was evident that the clubhouse proposition was gathering force and power.

The women had invited to the luncheon representatives of the many different organizations who depend on the playground center for the recreation of their children and themselves. Each representative testified to the great need of an adequate building for the carrying on of community interests. Those represented were Echo Park Baby Clinic, Echo Park Mothers' Club, Rosemont P.T.A., Custer P.T.A., Alpine P.T.A., Lincoln Heights School, Elverta Heights Civic Club, Temple-street P.T.A., Milton-street School, Council of Jewish Women, Union-avenue P.T.A., Micheltorena P.T.A., Jewish Alliance, Echo Park Playground

WANTED IN GIGANTIC FRAUD

Mercer, Held in Larceny Case Here, to Be Turned Over to Federal Men in $700,000 Swindles

Investigation by authorities into the operations of H. R. Mercer, awaiting trial in Superior Court on seven counts of grand larceny, has disclosed that the suspect is wanted by the Federal authorities for frauds aggregating more than $700,000 in various sections of the country. It was announced at the District Attorney's office yesterday.

As a result of this discovery, it was stated, Mercer will be turned over to the Federal authorities for trial.

Mercer, it was stated, is wanted particularly by the government in connection with a $500,000 swindle in May, 1917, in Pennsylvania. It was also stated that six of his asserted accomplices in this swindle are now serving terms in Federal prisons.

SOUGHT ELSEWHERE

The suspect, under the name of Warner, is also asserted to have defrauded residents of Seattle, Wash., out of $300,000. In the Pennsylvania case, it was stated, he gave half of $15,000 and then Mercer also is said to be wanted at Madison, Wis., on a charge of swindling $15,000 in this instance he is asserted to have deposited $15,000 to insure his appearance.

Editor Ordered to Pay Wages to Former Helper

A roll of bills among which several $100 notes are said to have been flashed prominently in Police Judge Richardson's court yesterday was depleted by $70 at the conclusion of the court session.

On a charge of violating the State Wages Law, Barrett J. Anderson, editor of Los Angeles Life, was convicted and ordered to pay Miss Helen Yates, former society editor of the magazine, $70 in wages the court found was due her.

Anderson, acting as his own attorney, gave the court notice of appeal but as no records were kept of the trial the motion was denied and the order to pay reiterated.

Anderson is said to have offered to pay Miss Yates by check at his office. Attorney Lewis for the State Labor Department, who prosecuted the case, objected to this and the court announced that Anderson either would pay the wages due or go to jail. The wages were paid in currency.

Miss Yates appeared in the State Labor Department some time ago.

DORIS KEANE HERE TO PLAY "ROMANCE"

Doris Keane, distinguished actress of the American and English stage, who will play the leading role in "Romance" as the opening play of Los Angeles' newest theater, The Playhouse, arrived yesterday from New York. She was greeted by a large crowd at the welcoming throng was Louise O. Macleod, managing director of the theater. Miss Keane smilingly accepted a huge bouquet of roses and posed for a battery of photographers, then expressed a desire to see Los Angeles. She said this is her first visit in more than ten years.

Declaring they had conspired to deprive him of his wife's affections, Charles Horowitz yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court against six of his wife's relatives, asserted to be wealthy, for $45,000 damages.

The defendants in the complaint were Olga Sacks, mother of the plaintiff's wife; Abraham Sacks and Sarah Sacks, his wife; Ben Sacks and Betty Sacks, his wife, and Etta Sacks. Abraham, Ben and Etta Sacks were asserted to be brothers and sister of Mrs. Horowitz, who before her marriage to the plaintiff was Miss Benie Sacks.

According to the complaint, Horowitz and Benie Sacks were married February 19, last. The husband stated his wife was deeply attached to him at the time and that they would have continued to live happily were it not for the asserted conspiracy of the defendants to induce his wife away from him.

The defendants were asserted to have harbored an intense dislike for Horowitz and to have induced Mrs. Horowitz to leave him by means of threats of dishonor, coercion, and by belittling the person and reputation of the plaintiff.

"You must have been crazy to marry him," was one of several remarks the defendants were said to have made to Mrs. Horowitz concerning her husband. "He must have influenced you by hypnotic power."

Horowitz stated his wife separated from him the 21st inst., two months after they were married. The defendants, who were said to be worth in excess of $100,000, were declared to have conspired to induce Mrs. Horowitz to leave her mother's home as part of their asserted scheme to keep the couple separated. The complaint was drawn by Attorney William P. Redmond.

ASKS DELAY IN FILING TAX REFUND CLAIMS

GOODCELL SAYS NEW PLAN MAY RENDER FORMAL PLEA UNNECESSARY

Income taxpayers expecting refunds under the recent community property decision of the Internal Revenue Bureau should await definite instructions as to procedure before taking steps to press their claims, Collector Goodcell announced yesterday. Instructions from Commissioner Blair had to the effect that the filing of amended returns and claims will not be necessary under a plan of procedure now under consideration by the Treasury Department. Legal objections have arisen, the commissioner reports, however, which may prevent the adoption of the contemplated procedure.

It is expected that approximately 117,000 claims for overpayment of income tax will be filed in the Southern California district under the community property decision. These will cover the payment of about $5,000,000 excess tax from 1918 to 1923, inclusive.

Wife Declares Her Successor Must Like Rum

A taste for liquor is the first requisite for any girl who wishes to succeed to her place as wife of John A. Wellensgard, according to testimony offered by Mrs. Agnes Wellensgard, who was granted a divorce yesterday by Judge Craig.

"Any girl who won't drink with me is no good," Wellensgard declared, his wife testified. This declaration, she said, was a direct reflection upon her own abstinence when she refused to drink with him.

Mrs. Wellensgard asserted that her husband was habitually intemperate.

"He never drew a sober breath from Christmas to New Year's," she said. "Once he grabbed my dog by its hind legs and threw it against a wall."

Army Air Hobo Crosses Nation on Unique Trip

Lieut. Frank E. Benedict, who left Santa Monica March 22 to beat his way to Washington, D. C., on the first air hobo trip on record, arrived in New York Thursday, according to messages received in Los Angeles. He plans to return to Santa Monica via the aerial hobo route after a visit to Washington.

Lieut. Benedict is in the United States Army Air Service and his "bumming" trip had the sanction of his superior officers. His plan was to travel from one army flying field to another, catching rides in airplanes that were making the trips on their regular flights. He estimated that the trip to Washington and return could be made in two months.

It is planned to hold musical contests in the various counties and district centers throughout Southern California some time during the coming year, the winning contestants to take part in a final competition in Los Angeles or some other large city in the late spring of 1925.

The following new members have been appointed to the executive committee by President Ben F. Pearson: Mrs. Jules Kaufman, W. J. Kraft, Mrs. A. B. Norton, Mrs. George H. Clark, Mrs. Adelaide Trovati, and Mrs. Loren B. Curtis and Miss Grace Adele Freebey.

Langan, an officer of the syndicate, yesterday entered pleas of not guilty in Judge Alvarado's court to charges of embezzlement and violation of the Securities Act. Their trial was set for June 6. ASSERTED DRUG RING CHIEF HELD

James Bates Arrested as Drunk at Hilarious Party in Venice

James Bates, held at the Venice Jail for the past two days on a drunk charge, was identified by federal agents yesterday as the asserted boss of a drug smuggling ring for whom a country-wide search has been in progress for the past three years.

The arrest of Bates came during the course of a hilarious liquor party at a hotel in Venice late Wednesday night, police stated. In the room with Bates, they found E. L. Dadds, former superintendent of streets of Venice, Louis Reynolds, Francis Teeple, Frank Davis and C. Hathway.

They were all scheduled for arraignment on drunk charges yesterday. Bates was released on nominal bail pending his hearing in police court after he had convinced officers that he was but a casual acquaintance of the others.

It was stated by federal agents that Bates disappeared about three years ago after having been fined $5000 to insure his appearance in federal Judge Bledsoe's court on charges of holding a gambling racket. Since that time he has been sought by federal authorities in every section of the country but has not been located.

The officers declared also that Bates is the "brains" of a drug-running ring operating throughout Southern California. The narcotics have been imported by members of the band from Mexico, it was asserted.

The Italian consular agency in Los Angeles soon will be reorganized, according to information received yesterday by Clarence Matson, manager of the foreign trade department of the Chamber of Commerce.

Under the reorganization plan, Enrico Piana, Italian Consul, will be succeeded by a vice-consul coming here direct from Rome. Mr. Piana has received word that the new official already has sailed for the United States.

In addition to Los Angeles, consular offices in the following cities have been designated as vice-consulates and will undergo similar reorganization: St. Louis, Newark, New Haven, Buffalo, Detroit, Cleveland and Pittsburgh.

Mate Sues Wife for Accounting in Partnership

In addition to marrying Effie Bridger, Claude W. Bridger made her his partner in business, but the latter relationship did not run as smoothly as Bridger would care to have it, according to a suit he filed yesterday in the Superior Court, in which he asked an accounting of partnership funds and requested the court to declare a trust of the business interests of the couple.

Bridger asserted he married the defendant in Detroit, Mich., March 16, 1917, on which date the pair combined their real assets of $1200 and formed the partnership involved in the suit. Everything went nicely for a while, the complaint indicated, it being asserted that the original sum gradually grew until it read $3000.

The couple then was said to have moved to Los Angeles, Bridger declaring that sometime after their arrival here, the defendant drew $1000 from their partnership account in a downtown bank and deposited it to her own account.

It was asserted that Mrs. Bridger had been compelled to make an accounting of this sum. The complaint was prepared by Attorney Stanley Visel.

Answers to Correspondents

"Dear Doctor: Do you think the following dream shows suppressed desire? I dreamed last night that my daughter had a box of chocolate creams. She bit into a big chocolate filled with nuts, but not finding it to her taste, laid it down on a plate. I came along, picked it up and had it all eaten when I remembered that candy was awfully high in calories. I was trying to figure out how many of 'em I had eaten and had decided to fast the rest of the day, when my alarm clock called me."

"I have lost ten pounds since I started the reduction course twenty-one days ago, thanks to you—Mrs. C."

Yes, your dream does undoubtedly denote suppressed desire. I wish all dreams were as easy to interpret. It is quite common, while dieting, to dream of the food you like best. You can have the most glorious banquets during your sleep. I was talking recently with a friend who had been on an exploring trip in the South Seas. He told me that his party was without food for two weeks or so, and it was quite common for all the men to dream of food, and they felt that they were actually less hungry after such dreams. More so. At any rate, if you want to reduce, the best way to eat chocolate creams is in your dreams.

"We have an article on acids which you may have by sending a stamped, addressed envelope with your request for it. I believe an exclusive milk diet—the so-called milk-cure—is a very wonderful thing for many chronic diseases, but it will not cure venereal diseases, so don't pin your faith to it for that."

If you are twenty pounds overweight, you can reduce on the milk diet if you do not take sufficient to supply your caloric or energy needs. If you take skim milk—equal to 320 C.—you can take four quarts a day, or perhaps five, if you are tall, and still reduce.

There are some books on the milk cure which I can recommend if you are not in a position to go to an institution, or to be personally supervised by a physician.

"Dear Doctor: I should weigh 138. I am far under it. How many calories should I eat per day?"

"My baby, five years old, is fat topped, as a result of rickets. Can I do anything to right them now? I am feeding him according to your articles and I have the soles and heels of his shoes raised on the inside. He is very thin and is gaining slowly and is getting a little more self-confident since I have started feeding him right. My second baby is nine months old and right up to the mark, thanks to you—P. L."

It is difficult to say how many calories a person may need, because the number varies with the size, weight, age activities, etc. In

SAYS AIDE IN HOLD-UP SHOT HIM

Witness Asserts He and Defendant Operated With Others in Hold-ups

A story of an underworld "partnership" that culminated when he was shot in the back by one of his asserted coworkers in crime was told in Judge Keetch's court yesterday by John Rugh, also known as W. B. Robertson, principal witness for the State in the trial of James I. Morrissey, accused of assault on Rugh with intent to commit murder.

On the witness stand Rugh told the jury he and Morrissey and two other men had entered an agreement to stage several hold-ups. Rugh said they were to operate in his automobile and that he was to receive one-fourth the net proceeds of all hold-ups by his alleged partners.

The trouble between Morrissey and Rugh was said to have begun when Rugh called on his three asserted coworkers and accused them of "double-crossing" him in a robbery of a Hollywood cafe-ria.

Later they patched up their differences, Rugh said, and started out on a "Yearling Day" to look for "prospects" in the La Brea oil field district.

Rugh said he stopped the machine near La Brea and returned his gun to Morrissey. The latter then was declared to have turned on Rugh and to have shot him in the back.

Rugh said he stopped the machine and was picked up by a passing motorist and taken to the Receiving Hospital. He is said to be partially paralyzed as a result of the shooting.

The case being prosecuted by Dep. Dist. Atty. Howell Richardson, while H. C. Huntington is acting as counsel for the defendant.

STUDENTS TO HAVE MOCK CONVENTION

POLITICAL SCIENCE GROUP TO GET FIRST-HAND EXPERIENCE

Delegates to the "Democratic convention" will assemble at Mills Auditorium, University of California, Southern Branch, at 1 p.m. next Tuesday. All interested politicians and others are invited to be present.

"State delegates" will be picked from the men and women students in the political science classes. The students are all members of the Pi Sigma Alpha, a national political science honorary fraternity.

The most popular candidates on campus are William G. McAdoo, represented by Frank Baithia, and Gov. Smith in the person of Dorchester Walker. Women students are backing Carrie Chapman Catt and Jane Addams. The plan of the mock convention is to give the students a working knowledge of the conduct and management of such a gathering.

First: Have him sit in front of you and hold his feet in your lap. Grasp the ankle firmly behind the heel. Then with the other hand bend the toes downward, then turn the foot upward and inward, making a circle. Second: Give a strong upward push on the sole of the foot, holding the heel firmly. Do not do this exercise too strenuously at first.

Nothing gives me more happiness than the letters telling me that children have been benefited by my advice. Thank you for writing, Mrs. L.

My dear Florence: When writing for material which we offer you, please remember to give your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and making a diet plan you must outline four meals in advance. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and true or write them lightly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith. We will use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to disagree with you or to answer you personally. I can include very much the beautiful letters you send and much it is impossible to give you full editorial advice. The questions you ask will be covered in the pamphlet, the same as the others of general interest. Don't forget the S. & A. if you cannot see the editor, the information I have offered.

LARGE SEIZURE BY VICE SQUAD

Ten Arrested in Raids on North Boyle Avenue

More Than 3000 Gallons of Moonshine Found

Officers Also Destroy Four Mammoth Stills

Chatterbox in Police Post
In a spectacular series of raids at daylight yesterday in the 600 block on North Boyle avenue, the police vice squad led by Capt. Plummer rounded up ten men and women on charges of manufacturing and sale of liquor, confiscated more than 3000 gallons of moonshine, wine and gin and destroyed four stills.

The raid was made just as residents in the neighborhood were awaking for their day's duties. The officers first descended on a house at 457 North Boyle avenue, there they found a large quantity of liquor and arrested the Carbons, 35 years of age; S. Provenzano, 52, and G. Spataro, 74. They were all charged with possession of liquor.

ARREST WOMAN

From here they hurried to the house next door at 451 North Boyle avenue, where they took into custody Mrs. Victoria Maricello, 39 years of age. In this house, the officers said, they found a large quantity of wine.

At 441 North Boyle avenue the raiders confiscated a 100-gallon still and six barrels of moonshine and arrested Jack and Joe Parrino, and Joe Brown, 38 years of age. They were charged with possession of and manufacturing liquor.

A huge crowd had collected in the neighborhood by this time and the officers to forestall any attempt to destroy the evidence divided themselves into groups and raced for the other homes under suspicion.

TWO MORE HELD

At 439 North Boyle avenue they found a 100-gallon still in operation, twenty-two barrels of mash and a large quantity of moonshine. The occupants, 1909 gallons of wine found in the house, George Bush, 19, and Lucy Bush, 44, were taken into custody on charges of possession of and manufacturing liquor.

The largest haul made by the officers was at 424 North Boyle avenue. There they found 1909 gallons of wine found in the house, George Bush, 19, and Lucy Bush, 44, were taken into custody on charges of possession of and manufacturing liquor.

MINISTER'S SUIT AGAIN POSTPONED

Crowd Stormed Court to Hear Case Against Rev. Robert P. Shuler

Several hundred people who stormed the Courtroom yesterday in an attempt to secure entrance to Judge Cary's court, where the suit for $50,000 damages brought by Rev. George Chalmers Richmond against Rev. Robert P. Shuler was scheduled to go on trial, were again disappointed when the court ordered a continuance of the case to May 1.

The delay was occasioned by the fact that Judge Cary, now sitting in extra session in the local Superior Court, must be back in San Diego by next Wednesday. At that time there was no court calendar clear yesterday, the case was retrained to Judge Burke's department for hearing on the advanced date.

The continuance came at the eleventh hour, after both Mr. Richmond and Mr. Shuler had taken positions on opposite ends of the inside row of seats in Judge Cary's courtroom. In the meantime several hundred people, police and others stormed the entrance of the room for admission and two policemen and extra bailiffs were summoned to handle the crowd.

Mr. Richmond, attired in the black habit of a clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal Church, was ready to go on trial, as was also Mr. Shuler, who wears a light silk shirt and a smart spring suit of light gray.

The issue to be determined by the court is whether Mr. Shuler libeled Mr. Richmond's name in an article published in "Bob Shuler's Magazine" in January, 1923. Mr. Richmond, who is retired from the ministry, asserted the article laid him open to "contempt, ridicule and obloquy," while Mr. Shuler answered that the article in so far as it concerned Mr. Richmond, was true.

Man Hit by Driven Auto Gets Damages Without Trial

Through a stipulation made by attorneys in Judge Hewitt's court yesterday, Alexander Hamilton was awarded damages of $3500 against the Brunswick Drug Company for injuries Hamilton asserted he received when a driverless automobile careened down a hill and struck him. The agreement was reached without the necessity of the case going to trial.

The accident occurred August 10, 1923, when a machine owned by the defendant ran down a steep hill at North Broadway and California street, over a sidewalk and onto the plaintiff.

In an answer to Hamilton's complaint, the defendant asserted the accident was unavoidable. The brakes on the car were blamed for the mishap.

WIDOW GETS FINE ON DRY LAW CHARGE

Testimony Shows She Picked Out Pension by Sale of Moonshine

A widow with five children, including one set of twins, Mrs. Marina De Aguilera, supplemented her pension of $50 a month from the county with the sale of moonshine, according to testimony yesterday at her trial before Police Judge Sheldon.

She was arrested at her home at 115 Dwyer street on March 17 last by Police Officer Crane, following the discovery, it is charged, of a fifteen-gallon still, approximately 100 gallons of mash and a small quantity of liquor.

Yesterday she brought into court her four-year-old twins, Maria and Rosalie, and Tony, 6. They appeared to be more interested in the moonshine and the sale of the still than in the testimony in the case.

Judge Sheldon found her guilty and fined her $400 or 100 days in jail. She was allowed to remain at liberty under $1000 bond, reported by Samuel Rosenthal, make an effort to raise the money.

BLAMES BROTHER, HE GETS DIVORCE

HUSBAND'S DESERTION PLEA WINS OVER INFIDELITY CHARGE BY WIFE

After a trial lasting a day and a half, during which Finlay W. Johnson and Mrs. Sophie Johnson accused each other of desertion, Judge Clerk yesterday granted a divorce to the husband on his charge of desertion.

Johnson declared that ever since he brought his younger brother here from the East he had been suspected in his wife's actions. Thomas Johnson, the brother, made his home with the contesting husband, it was testified. When Johnson later made a trip east, the younger brother returned to his wife's home, it was declared. Both Mrs. Johnson and Thomas Johnson contended this was because the husband had needed the money he paid her for board.

Although the decree was granted the husband, the court gave Mrs. Johnson the custody of the children and ordered Johnson to pay his wife $20 a week for their support.

BONDSMEN'S FAILURE PREVENTS REARREST

OFFICER WANTS IN VAIN TO SERVE WARRANT ON ALBREXTONDARE

ORANGE, April 25.—R. Horrick William Albrextondare, self-styled research scientist, who yesterday at his preliminary examination here was held to answer to superior court on a charge of practicing medicine without license, today found himself in the Orange County Jail at Santa Ana following a failed attempt to remove him from jail when property bondsmen residing in Los Angeles county failed to qualify on his $2000 bond because a court ruling prohibits securing court bond on property outside the county.

But by being in jail, Albrextondare today had successfully evaded rearrest on a fresh complaint charging a similar offense in Pasadena. After waiting more than five hours to serve the new warrant, Inspector E. Carter, representing the State Board of Medical Examiners, gave up the vigil.

At Santa Ana this morning Albrextondare was arraigned before Superior Judge Drumm, pleading not guilty. His hearing was fixed for May 7 at 10 a.m. and the bond reduced to $2000.

HAT WORKS IS DAMAGED BY FLAMES

Hill-Street Fire Ruins Guests of Hotel Above Burning Plant

Immediate discovery of a blaze in the rear end of the Pacific Hat Works, 234 South Hill, and prompt action by the fire department prevented spread of the flames and possible serious consequences at 1:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The building, known as the Harris Block, is a brick and wood structure and the damage was confined entirely to the Pacific Hat Works, with the exception of damage sustained from smoke and several broken windows by the MacRae Curio Shop, 332 South Hill, and the Alba Hotel which occupies the second and third floors of the three-story structure.

The blaze originated through a gas stove at the rear of the Pacific Hat Works and is believed to have been caused by a piece of wrapping-paper blown over it during the temporary absence of W. M. Seigel, proprietor, and W. Fleming, an assistant. The damage in the hat shop is estimated at between $10,000 and $15,000, said the proprietor. There is $3700 insurance.

Tells How Tanlac Won Decision Over Indigestion and Nervousness. Was So Miserable Duties of Office Were a Burden.

Judge John R. Keough, Justice of the Peace, 159 North Second St., Memphis, Tenn., is another man of prominence from whom the TANLAC treatment has elicited high commendation.

"Of one thing," recently said Judge Keough, "I am convinced beyond doubt and that is, Tanlac's goodness as a stomach medicine and general tonic. And this indigestion had me so nervous and played-out that it was a burden for me to discharge the duties of my office.

"Tanlac set me right a year ago and I have had no more health troubles since. I can eat and digest just anything—even corned beef and cabbage—and my stomach and nerves are as good as a man could ask for. Tanlac will always get a good recommendation from me."
